This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

+ Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.

+ Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.

+ Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.

+ Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

An ABSTRACT of all the Acts of Parliament relating to FAIRS; being a Sure Guide for the Owners, Governors, &c. of FAIRS.

I. THE owner, governor, ruler, farmer, steward, bailiff, or chief keeper of every fair and market overt, are to appoint and limit out a certain and open place within the town, place, field, or circuit, where horſes, mares, geldings, and colts, muſt be ſold, and they muſt appoint one ſufficient perſon or more to take toll, and keep the ſame place from ten of the clock before noon until ſun-ſet of every day of the aforeſaid fair or market, upon pain to loſe for every default forty ſhillings. 2, 3, P. M. c. 7. Co. 2. Inſt. f. 715.

II. And the toll-gatherer, his deputy or deputies, are to take their due and lawful tolls for every horſe, mare, &c. at the place and times aforeſaid; and they are to have before them at the taking of the ſaid toll, the parties to the bargain, the exchange, gift, contract, or putting away of every ſuch horſe, mare, &c. and alſo the ſame horſe, mare, &c. ſo ſold, exchanged, or put away; and then the toll-gatherer muſt write in his book the names, ſirnames, and dwelling-places of all the ſaid parties, and the colour, with one ſpecial mark at the leaſt of the ſaid horſe, mare, &c. on pain to forfeit for every default forty ſhillings. 2, 3, P. M. c. 7. Co. 2. Inſt. f. 715.

III. And the ſaid toll gatherer is within one day after the fair, &c. to bring his book to the owner, governor, or ruler, &c. of the fair or market, who is then to cauſe a note to be made out of the ſame, of the the true number of all the horſes, mares, &c. ſold at the ſaid fair or market, to which note he muſt ſet his hand or mark, on pain of forty ſhillings: And if the toll gatherer neglect to bring the book as aforeſaid, he alſo forfeit forty ſhillings. 2, 3, P. M. c. 7. Co. 2. Inſt. f. 715.

IV. Note, That where no toll is due, the book-keeper's fee for entering every contract, is one penny and no more. 2, 3, P. M c. 7. Co. 2. Inſt. f. 716.

V. Now, ſince the making of this ſtatute, 2, 3, P. & M. it is further provided by the 31 Eliz. That every ſeller or exchanger of any horſe, mare, &c. in a fair or market, which is unknown to the toll-taker or book-keeper, muſt procure one credible perſon that is well known to the toll-taker or book-keeper, who is to vouch and teſtify his knowledge of the ſeller; and the toll-taker or book-keeper is to enter both the names and ſirnames, myſteries, and places of dwelling of the ſeller and voucher into his book, with the colour, mark, and price of the horſe, mare, &c. ſo ſold or exchanged; and he is to give the buyer, if he require it, a note in writing out of his book, concerning the contract, ſubſcribed with his hand, for which he is to have two pence. 31 El. c. 12, Co. 2. Inſt. f. 17 & 718.

VI. Every toll-taker or book-keeper that ſuffers a ſale to paſs without a voucher, unleſs he know the party of his own knowledge, as aforeſaid, and every perſon making falſe teſtimony or avouchment in the behalf aforeſaid; and every ſeller unknown to the toll-taker, not bringing a voucher, and cauſing the ſame to be entered as aforeſaid, forfeits five pounds, one moiety thereof to the king, and the other to the proſecutor; and alſo the ſale of ſuch horſe, mare, &c. to be void. 21 El. c. 12. Co. 2. Inſt. f. 718.

VII. And note, That though an horſe, mare, &c. be at the ſale uſed in all the points aforeſaid, with vouchers, &c. yet the right owner or his adminiſtrators, may redeem a ſtolen horſe, if they claim him within ſix months after the ſtealing, at the pariſh or corporation where they ſhall find him, and make proof within forty days after, by two ſufficient witneſſes, before fore the next juſtice of peace of the county, or before the head officer in a corporation, that the horſe was theirs, and repay to the buyer ſuch price for the horſe, as the ſame buyer ſhall upon his oath before ſuch juſtice or officer teſtify he paid for him. 31 El. c. 12. Co. 2. Inſt. f. 718.

VIII. And if a ſtolen horſe be not ſold in fair or market, according to the rules aforeſaid, than ſuch ſale does not alter the property of the right owner, but he may ſeize or replevy him whereſoever he finds him. 31 El. c. 12. Co. 2. Inſt. f. 718.

IX. By the ſtatute 22 Car. II. c. 8. There ſhall be no buſhel but the Wincheſter buſhel, containing eight gallons; and none ſhall ſell by other meaſure, on pain of forty ſhillings.

X. If the clerk of the market of the king's houſe, or others authoriſed to mark or ſeal meaſures, being required, ſhall neglect or refuſe to ſeal or mark any buſhel, half-buſhel, or peck, duly gauged, he forfeits 5l. for the firſt offence, and for every other offence 10l. Or if king's clerk of the market of his houſe take more than his fees; or if any other take above one penny for ſealing a buſhel, one halfpenny for the half buſhel or peck, or more than one farthing for any leſſer meaſure, he incurs the penalties in the ſtatute 17 Car. I.

XI. That at the charge of ſuch perſons who have the toll or profit of the market where no toll is taken, there ſhall be before the 29th Sept. 1670, one meaſure of braſs provided and chained in the market-place, upon pain to forfeit 5l. 22 Car. II. c. 8.

XII. By the ſtatute of 22 & 23 Car. II. it is further provided, That whoſoever ſhall ſell or buy any corn or ſalt by the bag, or without meaſuring, being thereunto required, or in any other manner than as by the ſtatute 22 Car. II. c. 8. is directed, and without ſhaking the meaſure by the buyer, ſhall forfeit, beſides the penalty in the former act, all the corn and ſalt, or the value thereof, to the perſon or perſons complaining. 22 & 23 Car. II. c. 12.

XIII. Upon complaint to one or more juſtices of peace, the proof ſhall lie upon the defendant to make appear, by oath of one or more witneſſes, that he or they did ſell or buy according to this and the ſaid former act; wherein if he fail, he ſhall forfeit as by this act directed, to be levied by diſtreſs and ſale of goods, by warrant under the hand and ſeal of one or more juſtices, before whom ſuch conviction ſhall be. The penalties to be diſtributed, one half to the poor of the pariſh where the offence ſhall be committed, the other to the informer. 22 & 23 Car. II. c. 12.
